

Breakfast with the Birds 2018

Join us at Hird Swamp for an early morning of bird watching, expert speakers and a light breakfast. After recent deliveries of environmental water, the wetland has been home to thousands of waterbirds including Magpie Geese and Australasian Bittern.

We will also be running a photo competition with some great prizes. Categories include: Bird Portrait, Bird in Flight, Unusual Sighting or Threatened Species, Sunrise Splendour and Junior Photographer.

When: Sunday 4th of Feb, 2018 – 5am to 10:30am

Where: The event will be held at Hird Swamp, Macorna North. Due to limited car parking space at the event location, enter Hird Swamp at the southern end from Borella Road and follow the signs to the carpark. Participants will be transferred by bus from the car park to the event location.

RSVP: Registration is essential and places are limited. Please register by 1 February at Eventbrite (search Breakfast with the Birds 2018) or by contacting the NCCMA on 5448 7124 or info@nccma.vic.gov.au

Bring: Bring a hat, water bottle, chair if required, binoculars & camera (optional). Please dress for the weather including long pants and enclosed footwear.

Cost: This is a FREE EVENT. Coffee, tea and a light breakfast will be provided.

In the event of extreme weather conditions, the event may be cancelled.

Why not download our citizen science app in preparation for this event? Look for NatureBlitz in your app store, or go to: www.nccma.vic.gov.au/natureblitz-app

This project is supported by the North Central CMA through funding from the Australian Government's National Landcare Program and the Victorian Government.