

Fertcare[®] Dairy Nutrient Management workshop

AGRICULTURE VICTORIA

Tatura

You are invited to register for a free Fertcare[®] Dairy Nutrient Management Workshop to be held in northern Victoria.

This interactive workshop, including case study activities, will help you prepare practical dairy farm nutrient management plans, that not only help your clients optimise milk production while managing off site risks, but will also help meet Fert$mart and Fertcare[®] requirements.

Please note that when you arrive at the premises, you will be required to show evidence of your COVID-19 vaccination status before being allowed entry. This will enable DJPR to control the risk of COVID-19 infection to ensure the effective discharge of its occupational health and safety obligations.

Evidence of COVID-19 vaccination status may be digital or paper-based and is required to show proof of:

- receipt of your second dose of any TGA approved COVID-19 vaccine by 26 November 2021; or
- certification from a medical practitioner, or an Australian Immunisation Register immunisation medical exemption form that is completed and signed by a medical practitioner that states you are unable to receive a dose, or a further dose, of a COVID-19 vaccine due to a medical contraindication or an acute illness.

If you are unable to show evidence of your COVID-19 vaccination status, or proof that you are an excepted person, you will be deemed to be unvaccinated and therefore refused entry to the event.

If you have any queries about providing your vaccination status, or you are providing a medical exception, please contact Rachael Campbell.
