

Project Manager – Basin Plan Works and Measures

- Protecting our waterways and the community
- Opportunity to work on key water projects within the Murray Darling Basin
- Great lifestyle location

NORTH CENTRAL
Catchment Management Authority
Connecting Rivers, Landscapes, People

The purpose of the North Central Catchment Management Authority (CMA) is to protect and enhance the integrity of our catchments. Our vision is to become a benchmark organisation by working in partnership with our communities to deliver enduring natural resource management outcomes. We are currently seeking an enthusiastic and motivated Project Manager to join our team to work on two high priority water and environment projects.

Located just minutes from Bendigo at our Huntly office, the Project Manager will work within a small team to deliver the Gunbower Forest Ramsar site and Guttrum–Benwell Forests Murray Darling Basin Plan works and measures projects. These projects are aimed to identify efficiencies in the delivery of water to enhance the ecological health of the river red gum floodplains. Responsibilities include the development and management of technical work, provision of water and ecology expertise and engagement of key stakeholders and the community.

The essential criteria to succeed in this role include:

- An appropriate tertiary qualification in science, engineering or natural resource management, together with several years project management experience
- Demonstrated experience in environmental projects, preferably relating to the planning and management of water in waterway and floodplain systems
- Strong freshwater and ecology expertise
- The ability to communicate clearly and effectively with a wide range of stakeholders, including the general public

For further information about this position, obtain a position description from www.nccma.vic.gov.au or contact the North Central CMA on 03 5448 7124.

Note: Expressions of interest from service providers (e.g. consultants) offering potential secondment opportunities and/or provision of services that align with the requirements of the role are welcomed.

Applications marked 'confidential' and addressing the key selection criteria within the position description should be e-mailed to hrmanager@nccma.vic.gov.au or posted to the HR Manager, North Central CMA, PO Box 18 Huntly, VIC 3551.

Applications will be accepted until 5pm, Monday April 14th, 2014.