

River Detectives

Calendar of Events 2022 *

January	February	March
	Registrations close February 15th Schools set up with monitoring site codes and website login details	Introductory PD Session For new staff/schools (optional for others) Flexible format options available
April	May	June
Incursion for schools/groups Content/venue/audience/timing TBC
Virtual Incursion: Salinity (for students and staff) Project Prattles Collaborate online with colleagues and NCCMA project managers	Online River Detectives Summit (statewide event) Share learnings, highlights and upskill through collaboration. Keynote speaker, school showcases.	Ask The Expert webinar An interactive session for schools statewide to learn from an expert in the Natural Resource Management industry
July	August	September
Incursion for schools/groups Content/venue/audience/timing TBC
Virtual Incursion: Stormwater (for students and staff)	Project Prattles Collaborate online with colleagues and NCCMA project managers Stories of Change captured	Macroinvertebrate PD Session; Ideally as a face-to-face session (several locations across the region)
October	November	December
Incursion for schools/groups Content/venue/audience/timing TBC
Ask The Expert webinar An interactive session for schools statewide to learn from an expert in the Natural Resource Management industry	2022 evaluation surveys distributed 2023 registrations open	Collection / refresh of kits

*pending covid restrictions

Cross-curricular, multi-age waterway-themed activity matrices are available on the website (login required) to inspire on-site or remote learning opportunities and support teachers in program planning throughout the year.

