

Greg and Jo Bear's farm visit and Leaghur State Forest with
Land management
Ecologist,
Paul Foreman.

Guest speakers.

Greg and Jo Bear, low input, native pasture, sheep producers

Paul Foreman, Land management Ecologist/Botanist

How and why the Bears changed and grew their farm business philosophy, production enterprises and methods to produce sheep with low inputs and native vegetation.

Understanding landscapes and native habitats on your farm.

How every farmer can incorporate small changes to improve native habitat and biodiversity on their properties.

WHEN/WHERE: Wednesday 22nd September, 2021

9.30-1.30 Bears shearing shed/paddocks, Canary Island/Leaghur Rd, Loddon Vale, (6.3km from Loddon Valley Hwy, 10.2 km from Boort Kerang Rd)

Lunch provided

2.00-4.00 Leaghur State Park, Entrance Track, Boort Kerang Rd. (6.3 km from Canary Island/ Leaghur Rd)

RSVP by Wed, 15th Sept numbers are needed and limited,

To Anne Jackman, 0439 551 178, anne@cropfacts.com.au

HOSTED BY THE NORMANVILLE REGENERATIVE AGRICULTURE GROUP

THIS EVENT IS SUPPORTED BY THE NORTH CENTRAL CATCHMENT MANAGEMENT AUTHORITY, THROUGH FUNDING FROM THE AUSTRALIAN GOVERNMENT'S NATIONAL LANDCARE PROGRAM